Enhance your member rewards program

Highly effective, easy, low cost, cross marketing.

Generate Group Club Rewards® enables clubs to easily create highly effective cross promotion marketing campaigns that promote your club to the entire community every day.

Cross promoting with local businesses with promotional prizes is a simple, low cost and a very effective marketing strategy.

Local businesses are keen to cross promote with your clubs and will contribute to promotions run by your club.

These businesses will contribute to your loyalty program promotion costs and signage at the businesses promoting the club to the community deliver effective marketing value.

Members shopping at the club and local business partners with their PokitPal linked payment card can be rewarded with automatic entries into prize promotions funded by the group and conducted by the club.

Clubs can generate new value for their members and their community while building a positive brand image and a new source of marketing funding.

When your club supports the local community, the local community supports your club.

As a PokitPal merchant the club can send targeted offers to members via the PokitPal mobile App notifications to attract target customers and to boost slow trade periods.

Partnering with recognised brands is an effective way to boost your own brand and to build brand awareness.

Cross promotion is low cost marketing with high visibility.
